Fashion Show '23

Welcome to the Annual Fashion Show at RCBC. The Fashion Department welcomes the friends and family of our fashion design students as well as the RCBC Community and guests of the Cherry Hill Mall.

This year is extra special because we have partnered with the Cherry Hill Mall to create a fashion show in a “retail environment” setting. We are grateful for this collaboration as it has enriched the students experiential learning.

My senses are caught between imagining this fashion show as you will tonight and the reality of students and professors working in the classrooms. As I pass through the sewing labs I can only see their half completed garments. With a vivid imagination I can go beyond the missing sleeves, half collars, unhemmed gowns and dresses, pins in place of stitches and envision their finished garments fitted and ready to be modeled at tonight’s runway show. The buzz of the sewing machines working overtime will be replaced by music to enhance the show experience.

Our students have spent four semesters learning their craft, utilizing the multiple fashion courses offered at RCBC. These courses have separately defined skills that when combined together equals in the craft of becoming a Fashion Designer.

There is nothing more exciting than showcasing the culmination of an entire year of skill, passion, dedication and creative designing. Tonight’s show is an event to show off the amazing talent at RCBC and a celebration of the students who have worked so hard to achieve their goals.

Lisa Steinberg
Fashion Department Program Coordinator

The Cherry Hill Mall would like to express our sincerest appreciation for the Fashion Design Program at Rowan College at Burlington County and their collaboration with us in hosting a fashion show featuring all original collections by student designers.

We greatly value the creativity, passion and hard work of these student designers and it’s an honor to have the opportunity to showcase their unique and innovative designs. The dedication and commitment of the RCBC Fashion Design Program team to excellence are evident in every aspect of the event, from the stunning runway setup to the seamless coordination of the show.

We are grateful for the chance to work with such a talented and professional team and look forward to future collaborations. Thank you for your invaluable support and for helping us make this event an unforgettable experience for everyone involved.
